

Do's for a Successful HOSA State Leadership Conference

DO's for the General Sessions:

- Do arrive early to all sessions to assure yourself a seat in your HOSA region's zone.
- Do dress with pride in your HOSA uniform.
- Do plan ahead and take care of all personal business prior to the session so you will not have to leave during the program.
- Do put your phone on vibrate so you will not disturb anyone around you.
- Do remain for the entire session.

DO's for the Hotel:

- Do keep your room tidy and put the used towels in the bathroom so the housekeeping staff may clean your room.
- Do wear appropriate clothes in the hallways, lobbies and other public areas as you are not at home.
- Do keep your voice quiet in the halls as there are other guests in the hotel.
- Do let the people exiting the elevator off first prior to entering the elevator.
- Do arrive early to your room prior to curfew.

DO's for Your Competition:

- Do read the current up-to-date guidelines for your competition.
- Do find your competition room well ahead of time.
- Do bring all of the necessary equipment as stated in the guidelines.
- Do follow the guidelines as instructed for each event specific stipulations.
- Do attend your orientation.

Overall DO's:

- Do keep your advisor informed of your whereabouts.
- Do plan to attend as many State Leadership Conferences as possible.
- Do get to know your State Officer Team.
- Do have fun and enjoy the conference!